ORDINANCE NO. 1296

AN ORDINANCE MAKING IT UNLAWFUL FOR A PERSON TO PARK OR LEAVE STANDING A VEHICLE ON A LOT OR REAL ESTATE OWNED BY THE CITY OF HOOD RIVER, OREGON, WITHOUT FIRST OBTAINING PERMISSION TO SO DO AND IN ADDITION TO OTHER REMEDIES ALLOWED BY STATUTE OR ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE IMPOUNDING OF A VEHICLE PARKED OR LEFT STANDING ON CITY OWNED LOT OR REAL ESTATE IN VIOLATION OF THE ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF HOOD RIVER, INCLUDING THIS ORDINANCE; PROVIDING FOR THE PAYING FOR THE COSTS OF REMOVING, IMPOUNDING AND STORAGE OF SUCH VEHICLE; PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF THIS ORDINANCE; AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

THE CITY OF HOOD RIVER ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1: It is hereby declared unlawful for a vehicle to be moved on to or left standing on a lot or real estate owned by the City of Hood River, Oregon, without the owner, or the person lawfully entitled to possession thereof, having first given permission to move such vehicle on to such lot or real estate or to leave it standing thereon.

Section 2: When any police officer finds a vehicle parked or left standing on a lot or real estate owned by the City of Hood River, Oregon, in violation of this ordinance, such officer shall cause said vehicle to be removed and impounded and notify the municipal judge thereof. The cost of removing and impounding such vehicle and the storage charges therefore shall be paid by the owner or by the party entitled to possession of such vehicle. Upon application of the proper party for the vehicle, he must first pay said charges of removing and impounding and storage thereof before possession, in addition to any other charges which may be imposed by a court thereof before possession of the vehicle is released to him.

Section 3: Any person not satisfied with the taking and impounding of such vehicle which he owns or for which he is responsible under the terms of this ordinance may appeal to the Municipal Judge for a hearing to determine whether such vehicle is properly impounded, which hearing shall be granted by the municipal judge within a reasonable time but in no event later than ten days from the time the application for its release has been made. If the municipal judge finds upon such hearing that the vehicle has been properly impounded, he shall issue an order affirming the action of the police officer. If the municipal judge finds that the vehicle has not been properly impounded, he shall issue an order for the release of the vehicle.
