

ORDINANCE NO 7.

An Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Impose and Regulate Licenses upon Certain Trades or Callings, and regulating the Manner of Issuing Licenses."

Be it Ordained by the Common Council of the Town of Hood River:

Section 1. No person, firm, company or corporation shall be engaged in, prosecute or carry on any trade, business, occupation, pursuit or profession for which a license is required by this ordinance, or any ordinance of Hood River, until he or they shall have obtained such a license as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. That any person, firm, company or corporation required by this ordinance or any ordinance of the town to obtain a license to engage in any trade, business, occupation, pursuit or profession for which a license is required, shall first pay to the town treasurer the sum or sums required by ordinance, to be paid therefor, and thereupon, with the receipt of the treasurer, (which receipt shall set forth the kind of business for which license is required) they shall apply to the recorder, who shall issue a license to the parties applying, in accordance with the receipt of the treasurer. Every such license shall set forth the purpose, trade, business or profession for which the license is granted, and the name of the person taking out the same, the time which the license is to run, the date on which the same expires, and the date of issuing the license; and any person exercising or carrying on such trade, business or profession, or doing any act for which a license is required, shall, on demand of any city officer, produce such license, and unless he shall do so, may be taken and deemed to have no license, and placed under arrest by the proper officer for violation of this ordinance, and brought before the recorder to be dealt with according to law.

Section 3. In every case where more than one of the pursuits, employments or occupations for which a license is required, shall be pursued or carried on in the same place by the same person at the same time, license must be taken out for each, according to the rates severally prescribed. All licenses may be issued at any time; but no license shall be issued for a less time than the shortest time named and provided for such license in this ordinance, or any ordinance of the town.

Section 4. All licenses required by the ordinances of the town of Hood River, shall be paid for in gold or silver coin.

Section 5.
